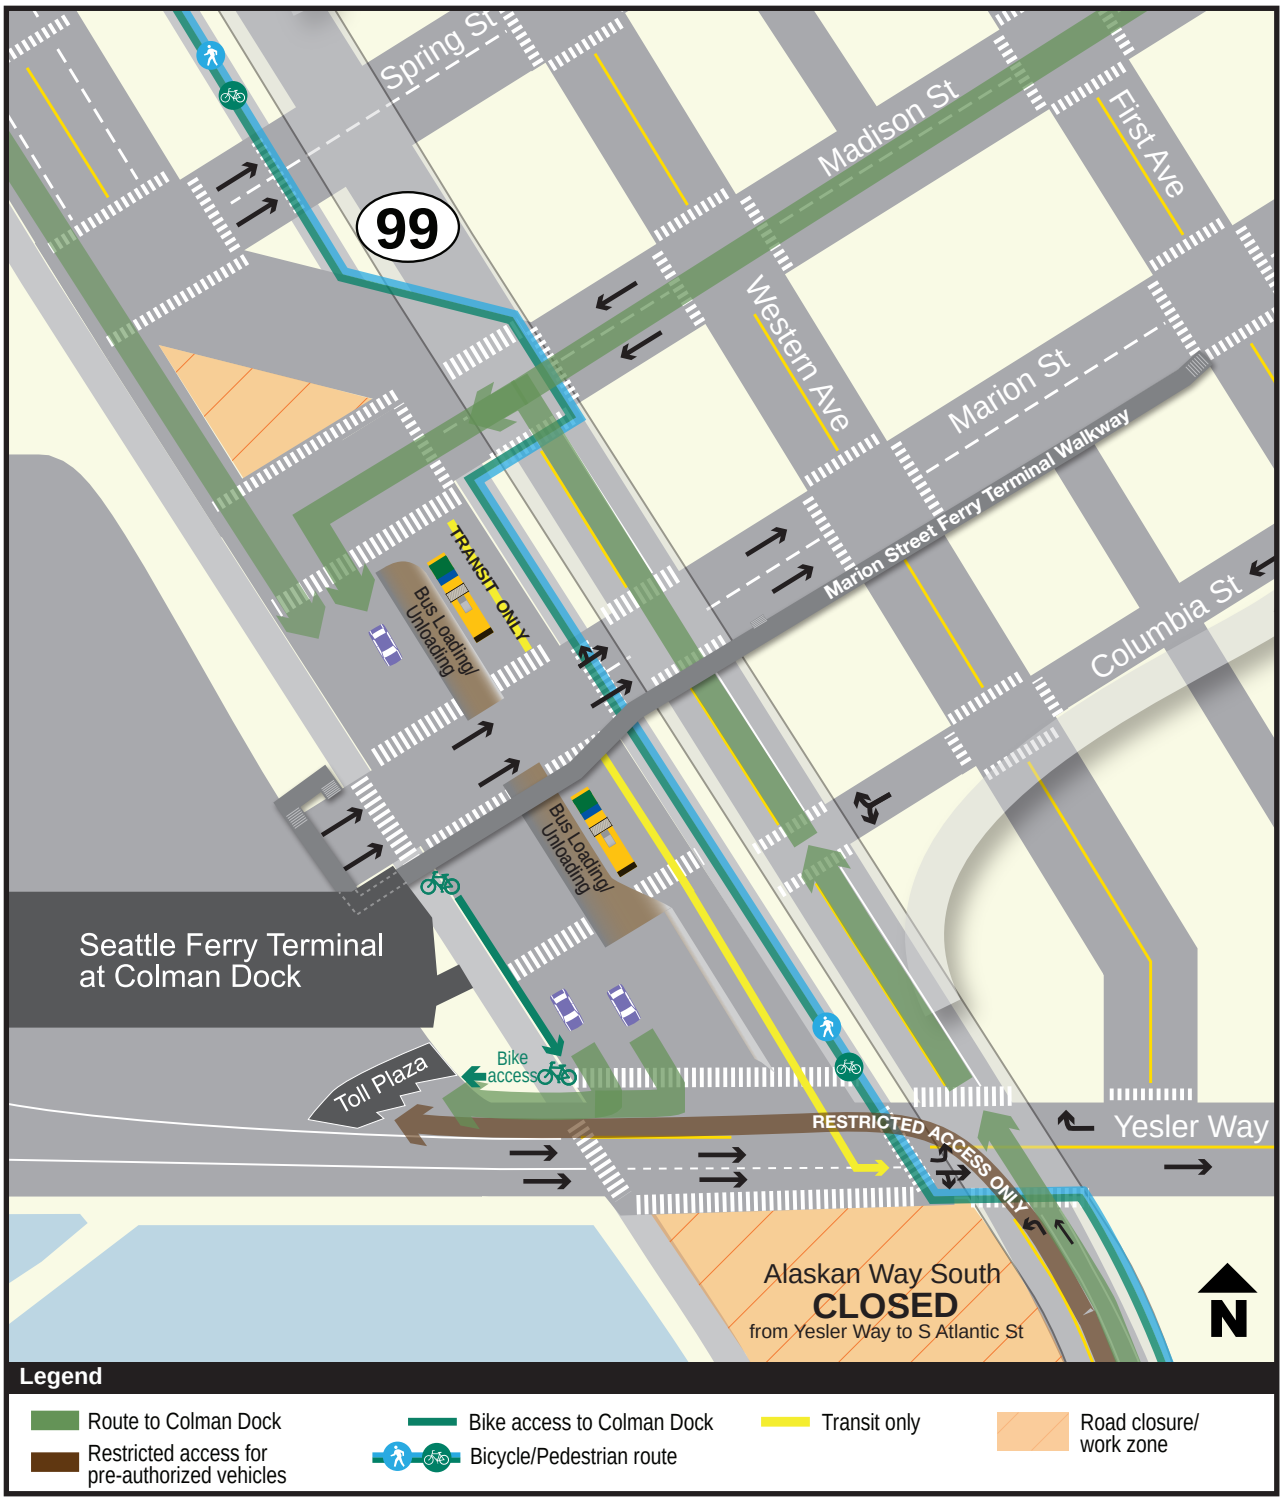
May 2012

Washington State Department of Transportation

SR 99 Tunnel Project

Changes to Colman Dock access during tunnel construction

Beginning in the second week of May, crews clearing space for tunnel construction will reroute traffic on Alaskan Way south of Spring Street to a newly improved road below the viaduct. The traffic shift will change the way travelers access the toll plaza to Colman Dock in Seattle. These changes will remain in effect until at least early 2014.



Visit the website at: www.alaskanwayviaduct.org. Call the hotline at 1-888-AWV-LINE (298-5463)