Internet Bidding Services for WSDOT – Training Available

Infotech® is pleased to announce that the Washington State Department of Transportation (WSDOT) has partnered with the Bid Express® service at www.bidx.com to offer an electronic bidding option to its vendors.

A subscription to the Bid Express service gives you the ability to get bid information online, enter your prices and other required data into the bid forms, and submit your bid via the Internet using the AASHTOWare Project Bids™ Bid component. For more information and to subscribe to the service, please go to www.bidx.com.

We highly recommend you attend a 90-minute internet bidding training session to learn more about the process. In this session, you will learn how to subscribe to the Bid Express service, configure the bidding software, download the necessary files and submit a bid online.

Please select a date below to sign-up for an upcoming training session:
