

I-90 corridor e-mail update

---

April 2, 2008

In this issue:

- I-90 Snoqualmie Pass East Project team completes major milestone to move project forward
- Out and about: Catch up with us at fairs, festivals and open houses
- Award-winning wildlife; Burl the Squirrel takes home another prize

I-90 Snoqualmie Pass East Project team completes major milestone to move project forward

Over the winter, the I-90 Snoqualmie Pass East's environmental team reached two major milestones in the development of the I-90 Snoqualmie Pass East Project. First, they began a formal consultation under the endangered species act; then the team completed the third step in a multi agency review process. These two major milestones will allow us to move forward with the completion of the Final Environmental Impact Statement (FEIS) this summer.

Out and about: Catch up with us at fairs, festivals and open houses

This summer, the I-90 Snoqualmie Pass East Project team will be out in your community. Find out where you can catch up with us and learn about the benefits of the I-90 Snoqualmie Pass East Project. You can also learn about other transportation-related events around the state.

Award-winning wildlife; Burl the Squirrel takes home another prize

Burl the Squirrel is an educational tool used to inform the public on the importance of the I-90 Snoqualmie Pass East Project. This public outreach effort is gaining award winning attention.

And, find out why Burl's friends are saying "cheese."

Please forward this e-mail to others who might be interested. Subscribe to other e-mail updates from WSDOT, unsubscribe or send us your feedback.