

---

VI. ORGANIZATION STRUCTURE

---

Redmond's GTEC program was developed in consultation with the following organizations and individuals:

Table VI-1

Agency or Organization	Strategy, Service, or Program Role/Responsibility	Projected Date for Completion
City of Redmond	The City will be responsible for ensuring implementation of the proposed GTEC program, including: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Administration</li> <li>• Planning</li> <li>• Parking Management Strategy development and implementation of parking demonstration</li> <li>• Provision of employer and commuter incentives</li> <li>• Development of marketing materials and maps</li> <li>• Wayfinding program</li> </ul>	On-going
WSDOT/CTR Board	WSDOT and/or the CTR board will be responsible for providing partnership funds to provide for administration and implementation of GTEC area strategies, services and programs	On-going
Greater Redmond Transportation Management Association	Conduct outreach and employer support activities to ensure awareness of GTEC area incentives, programs and services	On-going
King County Metro Transit	Providing transit service partnership opportunities	2008-2011
Employers in Redmond GTEC area	Redmond GTEC employers will promote incentive and other programs to their commuters. Redmond employers will also be offered opportunities to participate in funding partnership arrangements.	On-going