You are invited to our open houses in Easton and Cle Elum

You're invited to learn more about the upcoming I-90 construction projects and travel impacts from Snoqualmie Summit to Ellensburg at open houses in Easton and Cle Elum.

We have started construction on all five I-90 construction projects that are planned for this stretch of I-90 this year. You are encouraged to attend the open houses to learn more about these projects and why we are asking you to plan ahead and pack your patience during the busy 2009 construction season.

Details for the open house are as follows:

July 14, 2009

Easton Community School
Auditorium
1893 Railroad Street
Easton, WA 98925
4 p.m. to 7 p.m.

July 16, 2009

Cle Elum Roslyn Elementary
Multi-Purpose Room
2696 State Route 903
Cle Elum, WA 98922
4 p.m. to 7 p.m.

The open houses will focus on five I-90 construction projects:

- I-90 Snoqualmie Pass East project
- I-90 Snoqualmie Summit to Hyak westbound dowel bar retrofit project
- I-90 Lake Easton to Bullfrog Interchange westbound concrete replacement project
- I-90 Slide Curve to Cabin Creek paving project
- I-90 Yakima River Bridges to West Ellensburg paving project

During the open houses, WSDOT staff will be on hand to answer questions and provide information on the tools available for planning trips across I-90. We will not have a formal presentation, so you may stop by anytime between 4 p.m. and 7 p.m.
