Safety is Central...

Join us at this year's conference as tribes and transportation agencies come together to identify, discuss and make connections between programs in our tribal communities. Action-oriented teams review progress from past years and look forward to a new and productive year. ... Let's make a difference in safety!

Our Partners

This year's conference will be co-hosted by the Colville Confederated Tribes and the WSDOT North Central Region.

For more information about the Colville Confederated Tribes please visit their website at <http://www.colvilletribes.com>.

For more information about WSDOT's North Central Region please visit <http://www.wsdot.wa.gov/regions/NorthCentral/>.

Engage yourself in these work sessions:

Planning:

With emphasis on public transportation, safety, and other current issues involving tribal funded programs.

Cultural Resources:

Continue the dialogue as Tribal Historic Preservation officers / cultural resource managers work with WSDOT in project delivery.

Work Force Development:

The TERO Team invites participation from state, tribal representatives and tribal schools so that we may introduce projects, gain interest and promote participation in construction programs, and promote employment within Tribal communities.

2008 Tribal/State Transportation Conference

Sleeping Lady Mountain Retreat
Leavenworth, Washington
October 27-30, 2008

Location

The 2008 Tribal / State Transportation Conference will be held in beautiful Leavenworth, Washington. The conference will be at the wonderful Sleeping Lady resort amid the vibrant colors of fall in the middle of the majestic Cascade Mountain range, on October 27-30, 2008.

Lodging Information

The entire Sleeping Lady Resort has been set aside for exclusive use by our conference. Room assignments will be made by WSDOT conference staff organizers and made available at the registration desk upon arrival. Sleeping Lady does not allow smoking anywhere on their property. Please do not call the Resort for rooms or reservations directly. There will be space for 40 single rooms and 20 double rooms, so room reservations are on a first come, first serve paid registration basis.

For more information about the Sleeping Lady Resort, please visit their website at <http://www.sleepinglady.com> or call 1-800-574-2123.

For more information about space available, room assignments, or reservations please contact Elissa Hicks at (360) 705-7026 or

Resort & Local Attractions

Noted as one of the best tourist communities in the state, Leavenworth, Washington is nestled in the heart of the Wenatchee National Forest and the Cascade Mountain range. It is also right next door to the Alpine Lakes Wilderness Area. Icicle Creek runs through the middle of this charming Bavarian style village and provides year round scenic views and year round recreation.

Additional Information

Additional conference information is available online at: www.wsdot.wa.gov/tribal. For more information on the area, visit <http://www.leavenworth.org>.

Registration & Fees

This year's conference registration is all inclusive and includes 3 breakfasts, 3 lunches, 3 dinners and break refreshments, on-site room accommodations (single or double choice) at the Sleeping Lady resort, and all conference fees.

If you wish to pay the conference only registration it will only include your conference fees, and your meals. You will need to find a hotel in town at your own expense.

If registering after September 30, 2008, please fax a copy of your registration and payment to (360) 705-6803 prior to mailing originals.

If you plan to pay at door please remember to use check or cash only.

Cancellation Policy

A full refund of the registration fee will be provided after the event dates if requested in writing by September 30, 2008. No refunds will be given after September 30, 2008.
