

Washington State Department of Transportation

A report requested by the Governor of the state of Washington

Cable Median Barrier

Reassessment and Recommendations

June 2007

Douglas B. MacDonald
Secretary of Transportation

John R. Batiste
Chief, Washington State Patrol

Table of contents

- Executive summary and summary of recommendations 3
- Chapter 1: Independent expert report, An Evaluation of WSDOT’s Cable Median Barrier Policy, prepared by Malcolm H. Ray, P.E., Ph.D. 13
- Chapter 2: The importance of median crossover collision protection 33
- Chapter 3: The evolution of WSDOT’s use of cable median barriers and the current performance data on serious crashes averted..... 37
- Chapter 4: WSDOT’s current policies and programs for use of cable median barrier..... 51
- Chapter 5: Detail review of the fatal collision Feb. 13 on I-5 in Marysville, and the facts of cable median barrier on I-5 in Marysville..... 57

- Appendices:

- A. Location, installation and performance data from review of cable median barrier installations in Washington state 69

- B. Independent expert report, Experience with Cable Median Barriers In Other States, prepared by Malcolm H. Ray, P.E., Ph.D. and selection of newspaper stories from other states collected by WSDOT 103

- C. Citizen questions and concerns, letters and e-mails received by WSDOT and WSP and gleaned from the letters to the editor..... 143

D. Detailed reports related to the February 13, 2007 fatal collision in Marysville..... 169

- WSP Major Accident Investigation Team Case Summary
- Independent expert report, Warren Cable Guardrail Accident on I-5, prepared by Safety Quest, Inc.
- WSDOT Materials Laboratory report
- Independent expert report, Metallurgical Analysis of Cable Median Barrier Components from Barrier Crossover Collision on February 13, 2007, I-5 Accident In Marysville, Washington, prepared by McKnight Laboratory, Inc.