

1 (December 4, 2006)
2 Hazardous material excavation including haul will be measured by the cubic yard. All 3 excavated material will be measured in the position it occupied before the excavation 4 was performed. An original ground measurement will be taken using cross-section or 5 digital terrain modeling survey techniques. The original ground will be compared with a 6 survey of the excavation area taken after the work is completed.