

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8

(April 6, 2015)

Traffic Signal Standard Foundation Shaft Casing

All permanent casing shall be a smooth wall non corrugated structure of steel base metal. All permanent casing shall be of ample strength to resist damage and deformation from transportation and handling, installation stresses, and all pressures and forces acting on the casing. The casing shall be clean prior to placement in the excavation. The permanent casing may be telescoped, but the outside diameter of the casing shall not be less than the specified diameter of the shaft.