

Office of Equal Opportunity
Highway Construction/Trades Scholarship/Tuition Assistance Program

Application Deadline: July 1, 2016

Who: Residents of Washington State that are females, minorities and socially and economically disadvantaged.

You will qualify if: you want to:

1. Enter one of the construction trades
- And
2. Work in the highway construction industry

And need help paying for the cost of training*.

Eligible Trades

- Carpenter
- Electrician
- Cement Mason
- Painter
- Truck Driver
- Iron Worker
- Heavy Equipment Operator
- Pile Driver
- Laborer
- Heavy Equipment Mechanic

*Program cost covered can be full or partial assistance. Other costs considered can be for books and supplies needed for program completion.

How to apply:

1. Find a program that you want to attend and apply for admission.
2. Complete the application (<http://www.wsdot.wa.gov/EqualOpportunity/Training/ScholarshipProgram.htm>) and submit to OJTSSinfo@wsdot.wa.gov.
3. Make sure you include your letter of acceptance or enrollment into the program of your choice.
4. Fill out the application carefully. Incomplete applications will be returned to you.

*The scholarship provides assistance to help pay for approved training. WSDOT does not provide training or job placement assistance.

For WSDOT job information and openings <http://www.wsdot.wa.gov/employment/>

About the Program: The WSDOT Highway Construction Trades Scholarship Program is designed to assist female, minority and socially/economically disadvantaged individuals that are residents of Washington State who want to pursue training through an approved program that leads to employment in highway construction.