

Agenda

Eastside Corridor Expert Review Panel and Executive Advisory Group

Date: Thursday, October 7, 2010
Location: Renton City Hall – Council Chambers
Time: 9 a.m. – 11 a.m.

Expert Review Panel Members: Ginger Goodin (Texas Transportation Institute, Chair), Bob Poole (transportation consultant), Jennifer Tsien (PBS&J), Chuck Fuhs (Parsons Brinckerhoff), Janet Lee (Public Resources Advisory Group)

Meeting Focus: Report out on Policy and Methodology Questions;

9 – 9:10 am	Welcome and Introductions Review meeting agenda and goals	Ginger Goodin, ERP Chair & Craig Stone, EAG Chair
9:10 – 9:40 a.m.	Report Out on Question 1: Policy Is the state’s strategic approach of “Moving Washington” to implement express lanes on I-405/SR 167 viable, appropriate and consistent with emerging federal policy and current state and regional policies? 20 minute ERP presentation and 10 minute discussion between the ERP and EAG.	ERP EAG Comment
9:40 – 10:15 a.m.	Report Out on Question 2: Methodology Are the technical analytical measures and results supporting the Eastside Corridor Express Toll Lanes Report valid? Were the right tools applied to the analysis? Are the report results reasonable? What outcomes are reasonable to expect based on industry experience? 20 minute ERP presentation and 10 minute discussion between the ERP and EAG.	ERP EAG Comment
10:15 – 10:30 a.m.	Introduce Question 3: Phasing Is the proposed phasing plan to implement an express toll lane system sensible, and provide for logical, usable segments towards a 50-mile Eastside Corridor system? Introduce Question 4: Financing Are the Eastside Corridor Express Toll Lane Report financial assumptions, methods, and forecasts valid?	ERP/EAG Facilitated by Craig Stone
10:30 a.m.	Public comment (time limit 3 minutes each; one representative per organization)	Facilitated by Colleen Gants
10:45 a.m.	Adjourn Meeting	Craig Stone

Eastside Corridor