The screenshot shows the Puget Sound Regional Council website. At the top, there is a navigation menu with links for 'OUR WORK', 'WHAT'S HAPPENING', 'DATA & RESOURCES', 'ABOUT', and 'CONTACT CENTER'. The main banner features a scenic image of a lake and trees, with the text 'Projects selected for $67 million in PSRC funding' and a 'Learn More' button. Below the banner, there are three news items: 'Launch Day for U Link this Saturday' with a city skyline image, 'Region magnet for newcomers as jobs grow' with a lake image, and 'Upcoming meetings' listing events for Monday (August 23, 2016) and Tuesday (August 24, 2016). A map of the Puget Sound region is overlaid on the right side of the page, showing various tribal territories like Puyallup Tribe, Fife, Milton, and Ed, with colorful stars marking specific locations.
